6. (Unclassified - BLP) FOIA Ms. Kristin Arnold, in the office of Representative Paul N. McCloskey (R., Calif.), called today to follow up on a telephone inquiry she had left for me yesterday regarding the Privacy Act request of [redacted] Having checked with IPS yesterday on the status of this case, I advised Ms. Arnold today that a final response had been mailed to [redacted] on 3 March 1977. No further action is required. In response to Ms. Arnold's query, I described several aspects of Privacy Act procedures.

7. (Unclassified - RLB) LEGISLATION Contacted Jim MacRae, OMB, to find out whether his office had been successful in getting through to the White House regarding our problems on S. 305, which we had gone over at our meeting on 9 March. Mr. MacRae said they were on the calendar to speak with Robert Lipshutz, Counsellor to the President, but had not yet been able to see him. We agreed to keep in close touch on this matter given the short deadline involved.

8. (Unclassified - RLB) LEGISLATION Received a call from Roger LeMaster, Legislative Aide to Senator Walter Huddleston (D., Ky.). He requested a copy of a working paper which [redacted] OGC, and I had used during the course of our meeting with LeMaster on 3 March on sources and methods legislation. After checking with [redacted] who indicated the paper could be made available to Mr. LeMaster with the caveat that it was merely an informal working paper, I called Mr. LeMaster's office and indicated the paper would be sent as soon as possible tomorrow.

5. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Dan Childs, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to inform him that Admiral Stansfield Turner would be unable to be present for the entire briefing on a CIA budget, scheduled for 22 March. I said Admiral Turner would be able to attend the entire session if it would be moved to the afternoon of the 22nd, but Childs said this would be impossible. The meeting is still set for 22 March at 10:00 a.m. and the Committee understands that Admiral Turner will not be able to stay for the entire session.

10. (Unclassified - YTF) LEGISLATION Received a call from Ms. April Gardner, in Senator Paul Sarbanes' (D., Md.) office, who wanted to know if there was a bill that would make mandatory retirement at age 55 for FBI, CIA and the Secret Service. After checking with [redacted] Office of Personnel, I told Ms. Gardner that there was such a bill passed last Congress covering firefighters, FBI, the agents of the Drug Enforcement Agency and Air Traffic Controllers, but CIA was not included.

11. (Unclassified - RLB) LEGISLATION Roger LeMaster, Legislative Aide to Senator Walter Huddleston (D., Ky.), called inquiring as to the availability of a paper [redacted] OGC, and I went over with him during our meeting on sources and methods legislation on 3 March. Mr. LeMaster is interested in obtaining a copy of it. I told him I would check with [redacted] and get back to him.

12. (Unclassified - RLB) LEGISLATION Discussed with Jim MacRae and Nanette Blandin, OMB, their plans to hold a meeting tomorrow at 2:00 p.m. to discuss the Agency's views on S. 305, a bill to expand corporate reporting requirements and outlaw foreign bribery. Apparently representatives from the following agencies and departments will attend: Departments of State, Justice, and possibly Treasury; Securities and Exchange Commission; and the National Security Council. The meeting will be in anticipation of a paper OMB will prepare for the President outlining the equities in this legislation of Executive agencies and departments. Representatives from this office and the Office of General Counsel will attend on behalf of the Agency.

13. (Unclassified - DFM) LIAISON Received a call from Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. Miller said the Committee would be meeting on 9 March and he hoped to have Agency comments on the proposed preliminary statement on [redacted] to the Committee

9. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Discussed with Nanette Blandin, OMB, our proposed letter to Senator Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii), Chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, on S. 305, Senator William Proxmire's (D., Wis.) bill that would expand reporting requirements and outlaw corporate bribery. Ms. Blandin had a couple of questions about the bill and suggested that we include in the letter proposed amendatory language. I told her I would send her a new copy of the letter with a few additional changes for OMB clearance.
